

Institute for the International Education of Students (IES) Scholar Application

Thank you for your interest in obtaining financial assistance for the Middlebury Interactive Languages' Academy. Interested parents or guardians should complete and submit this form along with a copy of your child's report card and the front page of your most recent federal income tax return showing adjusted gross income. Following your child's acceptance into the Academy, we may request additional items necessary to complete your financial aid review. Deadline for applying is March 31, 2017.

Note: This scholarship is available for the Nantes Academy, Granada Academy, and Salamanca Academy only. Only one student at each location will receive this award. It will cover both tuition and travel expenses for the recipients.
